"Twenty-two hundred!" cried Calhoun who stood close to the rails. Joyner remained silent, and it looked as if the son of mained silent, and it looked as it the son of Octagon would go to Calhoun, when T. J. Healey, trainer for R. T. Wilson, Jr., pretected him with a $5 advance. Calhoun raised the figures to $2,400, and again Healey protected. As Calhoun started away from the rail J. A. Bennett got into the game with a $2,500 bid. Judge McDowell was about to knock the gelding down to him at this figure when a Pinkerton called to Mr. McDowell:
"Here's a bid!"

It was another $5 advance from Healey and more bids were called for. Calhoun, from the edge of the big crowd that had collected, raised the ante to $2,600, and when Healey protected once more the youngster was sold to him for $2,605. At first it was throught that Healey had been acting for Mr. Belmont, but it turned out that he had really bought Lord of the Forest for Mr. Wilson. In the clubhouse a few mi nutes later Mr. Wilson met Mr. Belmont and offered to let him have the two-year-old back.
"No," was the reply of the Jockey Club's chairman. "He was entered to be sold and chairman. "He was entered to be sold and was protected for as much as we thought he was worth. The sale stands."

It is not often that a steward's horses are run up in selling races, and for that reason run up in section cansed no end of talk. Half the run-up, or $700, went to Mrs to Durhalf who from the property of the way, was one of the first to congratulate Mr. Keene on Sysonby's time, and Mr. Keene, turning to his famous trailer, said

"What you told me about Tradition rather

This saily brought the good natured remark from Joyner that Tradition would be chasing Sysonby again in the Realization, in Sysonby had a narrow escape from permanent injury while at the post. He had the rail position, and was standing quietly waiting for the gate to go up when Monsieur Beaucaire kicked up viciously and caught the Keene colt on the off hindleg at the point of the stifle. Sysonby felt the pain, for he favored the leg for several momnts, but he recovered from the effects of it in time to run his race. The bruise was examined in the paddock later, and was found to be only superficial.

The stewards of the Jockey Club held a meeting in the clubhouse during the afternoon, James R. Keene, J. H. Bradford, H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller and F. R. Hitchcock being present. W. S. Vosburgh was chosen steward to represent the Jockey Club at the Brighton meeting, with C. Cornehlson clerk of the scales. The stewards also made a significant move when they appointed Jake Holtman and Dick Dwyer to do the starting at the coming meeting in Providence, J. Morris was also appointed steward for that meeting and Frank J. Bryan presiding judge. John Boden will be the clerk of the course and the scales, with O. C. Farley paddock and patrol judge. A number of jockeys and trainers were licensed.

The Commonwealth Handicap was run for the first time last year, when John A. Drake's Ort Wells was the winner in 2063-5, with 110 pounds, Yesterday's race was worth $1,670, of which $11,670 went to the winner. Previous winners of the Spring Stakes, first run in 1886, were Tremont, Satisfaction, Aurania, Blackburn, Strathmeath, Victory, Comanche, St. Maxim, Waltzer, Hazlet, Scotti h Chieftain, Firearm, Ethelbert, Mischlevous, The Parader, Chilton, Hurst Park, Gallant and Red Friar.

Work of the Vesper Crew.

HENLEY ON THAMES, July 1.— The Vesper crew, if it wins the first heat in the races next week, as is most likely, will have the Bucks station in the second heat and the Berks station on Thursday. This morning it rained, but in the afternoom the weather was fine. The Vespers went over the whole course in the morning and again in the afternoon without any special exertion at a stroke of 34. They rowed somewhat harder in the afternoon and showed signs of having had too much work. Taker on they attended a garden party at Frank Crisps at Friar Park. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

SYSONBY WINS GALLOPING. Takes Commonwealth Handleap From a Good Fleid.

Sysonby, America's turf king, won the rich Commonwealth Handicap, one mile and a quarter, at Sheepshead Bay yesterday after-noon in a gallop. James R. Keene's three-year-old colt by Melton-Optime, who has yet to be extended to the full limit of speed and endurance, picked up 110 pounds and, carrying a world of money, which made him an odds on favorite, led from start to finish, with his jockey Nicol sitting still, and passed the judges five lengths to the good in 2:07, the race being run over a slow track. Sysonby gave nine pounds by the scale to W. B. Jennings's Proper, 25 to 1, who ran second, and who beat Mabel Richardson, 100 to 1, an added starter, by three parts of a length. Back in the ruck Sydney Paget's three-year-old filly Tradition, who was in receipt of two pounds from Sysonby, and S. S. Brown's four-year-old Broomstick, to whom the winner gave thirteen pounds, came home badly beaten. Tradition was eight lengths behind Mabel Richardson, while Monsieur Beaucaire, five lengths away, finished a head before Broomstick. Sysonby opened in some books at 8 to 5, but the financial flood poured upon his chances sent him to the post at 4 to 5, while Tradition and Broomstick both went up to 7 to 2.

When the barrier was raised Sysonby broke like a flash and quickly assumed the leadership. He had a world of speed, and coming down past the judges for the first time Nicol took him up and entered the back-stretch with the Keene colt under wraps. Proper was off quickly, too, but Miller hustled Tradition up to him with such a dazzling turn of speed that it looked for a moment as if the Paget mare would do something. But Proper, who ran the best race of his career, held Tradition safe in the wild rush to the far turn, where the Paget filly finally quit cold. Then Proper, under O'Neill's hard riding, went after Sysonby, but it was a fruitless chase, for, as soon as Nicol let out a link, Sysonby drew away in the easiest possible manner.
O'Neill put Proper under the whip to stall off Mabel Richardson. Broomstick was never able to get into the argument, and though Martin rode him with great vigor through the last half mile he could not make up any of the ground lost in the early stages of the race. Sysonby's victory was hailed with wild acclaim, for he had run true to form and had delighted thousands who had shown their supreme confidence in him with backing that was practically without limit.

Nicol did not do so well on Fred Cook's George C. Bennett, the prohibitive favorite in the Spring Stakes, for two-year-olds, six furlongs on the Futurity Course. There was not a pocket that escaped Nicol, who messed the colt about in such a manner that the crowd was not slow to criti-Senator McCarren's Voorhees, 9 to 2, made the running, after a poor start, in which the favorite got a shade the worst of it, while R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Bill Phillips, 8 to 1, was in close attendance. When Voorhees began to hang. Redfern went on with Bill Phillips, who took the race in a hard drive by three parts of a length in 1:14 2-5. Bennett was closing at the end, and nailed the place from Voo rhees by the same margin.

Dave Johnson's Roseben, one of the most consistent horses in training, picked up 140 pounds in the highweight handicap at six furlongs, and was returned victorious in a mild drive by a length and a half. The start was so poor that Ivan the Terrible, who was well up in the figures, had no chance. Druid to the middle of the stretch where Rosepen. a hot favorite, by the way, ran over her under O'Neill's persuasion and won amid an en-thusiastic demonstration. Roseben gave 22 pounds to Druid and the same weight to H. P. Whitney's Prince Hamburg, 8 to 1, who, eight to the Back, took third money from Ivan the Terrible by a head. The race was run

After leading for a greater part of the journey in the steeplechase, over the full course, T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s Phanton, 20 to 1, succumbed to J. W. Colt's Sandhurst, S to 5 favorite, who won by a couple of inches in the last stride, although he never felt a blow from the whip. E. E. Smathers's Duke of Connaught, 12 to 1, was third. W. Gould Brokaw's Pagan Bey, second choice, fell early in the race, while Judge Fulton, a long shot, tumbled later on. The time was 5:12.

In a smashing drive August Belmont's Lord of the Forest, backed down to threes from sixes, was triumphant in the fifth race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. He was under Baird's whip when he got the verdict by half a length over Ladsarion. 10 to 1. Bill Daly's Gentian, 20 to 1, was third, with Newton Benaington's Merrick, the favorite, two lengths away.

Woodford Clay's Memories, an odds on favorite in the last race, at nine furlongs on the turf, was easily beaten by E. E. Smather's Action, a, 15 to 1 shot, who made a runaway the turf, was easily beaten by E. E. Smathers's Action, a 15 to 1 shot, who made a runaway of it and won in a gallop by five lengths in 1:53 3-5. It was a drive for Memories to take second money by a head from H. J. Morris' Ken, 20 to 1, with Charles Oxx's Possession, who was off last, a head out of the money. Three favorites landed the money, and fully 30,000 persons were on hand. The summarles:

TEAM GOLF ON MANY LINKS.

FREEPORT STARTS WITH VIC-TORY IN LONG ISLAND LEAGUE.

Englewood Wins From North Jersey-Programs Out for the Amateur Championship-Plans for the Professionals at Van Cortlandt-Tourney at Deal.

season in the Long Island Team League yesterday, when Freeport sent its eight picked men to the Highland Golf Club course. midway between Jamaica and Flushing, for the opening match of the series. A club swung with particular effect was Watts's putter, which he used with one hand in croquet mallet style, and by its aid settled the chances of M. T. Murray, who led the Freeport clan. Murray had a lead of 2 up in the first round, so he only lost one point. Sorbe also lost a point to Joost, Jr. The Freeport players won out in all the other matches and obtained the honors of the day by 11 to 2. Nassau

The 2.817-yard round is a fine, undulating course for an inland one, with the turf better than ever before. The bogy is 39, but no one came near to it in the match. The rough grass, left as a hazard off the line of play by Manager Kerr, was a sure punishment for wild drives and made the totals rather high.

The team score:

Freeport—M. T. Murray, 0; R. Jenkins, 1; D. A. Fuller, 3; H. G. King, 1; G. Storey, 2; A. T. Dubey, 1;
T. Jackman, 8; T. Sorbe, 8. Total, 11.
Highland—G. T. Watts, 1; W. B. Donnell, 0; A. H. Hutchings, 0; B. R. Van Tassell, 0; W. H. Seibert, 0; J. H. Redfield, 0; J. H. Hobbs, 0; C. Joost, Jr., 1. Total, 2.

The return match will be at Freeport on July 15. The Bayswater and Midland teams have not as yet arranged their dates. The Highland members also played the first round, on the point system, for the tournament committee cup, to be continued on the Satudays of July. The best cards were:

W. B. Donnell, 100, 15—85; C. R. Chapman, 108, 12—86; E. R. Van Tassell, 96, 10—86; C. Joost, Jr., 105, 17—88; A. H. Hutchings, 99, 6—93; J. H. Redfield, 104, 10—94; J. H. Hobbs, 110, 18—98.

PLAINFIELD, July 1.—in a team match between the women and men at the Plain-field Country Club this afternoon the men were victorious by a score of 22 to 9. The were victorious by a score of 22 to 9. The summary:

Women—Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, 2: Miss Maude Van Boskerck, 0; Miss Edith Tracy, 0: Miss Margaret Goddard, 7: Miss Martha Robert, 0; Mrs. Waiter Gaston, 0. Total, 9.

Men—Dudley H. Barrows, 0; Arthur Murphy, 9; W. L. Glenney, 2; L. L. Tweedy, 0; N. Pendleton Rogers, Jr., 7; C. B. Morgan, 5. Total, 26.

Harry C. Munger won first honors for the golf committee cup, making the best net score of the season, a 68. The scores:

H. C. Munger, 76, 8—68; S. H. Patterson, 92, 20—72; Arthur Murphy, 83, 7—76; C. H. Morgan, 80, 4—76; A. L. Otterson, 90, 14—76; G. M. Furman, 88, 10—78; J. B. Erickson, 88, 10—78; T. R. W. T. Glenney won the boye' championship by defeating Ogden Rogers in the final play by 1 up in 19 holes.

Programs are out for the amateur championship, to be held at the Chicago Golf Club, Wheaton, Aug. 8 to 12. The only novel point from preceding years is that the thirty-six hole qualifying round will be played in eighteen hole sections on the first two days. Thirty-two will qualify, all the match play but the final to be at eighteen holes. The entries, which must be sent in by club secretaries, close on July 61 with W. Fellowes Morgan.

The Western Golf Association has put up the Olympic trophy for an annual match between teams from recognized golf associations. The first competition will be held at Wheaton on Aug. 7.

ATLANTIC BOAT CLUB REGATTA. Spirited Races in Annual Fixture on Hackensack River.

The forty-seventh annual regatta of the Atlantic Boat Club of Hoboken was held yesterday afternoon over a three-quarter mile course on the Hackensack River at East Rutherford. Though there were only six events on the program, the card afforded good sport, and close finishes resulted in all he events. The races were rowed with the tide from a point three quarters of a mile south of the clubhouse at the Hackensack

The most interesting event on the card was the senior four oared barge race. There were three crews in the race and it was a case of nip and tuck from the start to the finish. Crew No. 2 with Lincks as coxswain and Crew No. 1 with H. Oswald as coxswain and crew No. 1 with H. Oswald as coxswaln alternated in the lead up to within a hundred yards of the finish, with Crew No. 3 always close behind. At this point the latter crew made a strong finish, winning from Crew

No. 1 by half a length in 4 minutes 56 seconds, Crew No. 2 finishing a length behind the

When the senior four oared shell race was started, Crew No. 2, with Koenig, stroke, was leading, but on account of bad steering collided with Crew No. 1. The race was started again, and after a close race Crew No. 1 won by about three lengths, in 4 minutes 54 seconds.

54 seconds.

The single shell race brought together T. L. Blindewald and Charles Theiss. It was an even match, both men rowing a fine race. At the half mile mark Theiss led by a quarter of a length, but he could not stand the strain and Blindewald closed up on him and won by two feet in 4 minutes 15 seconds. Summaries.

Englewood, on the home course, beat the North Jersey Country Club team by 14 to 4 yesterday, in a match of the New Jersey Golf League. The score: Englewood—F. M. Olyphant, Jr., 6; F. M. Wilson, F. M. All the details have been completed for the professional golf tournament to be held at Van Cortlandt Park, Thursday and Friday, July 13 and 14. At a meeting of the executive committee, held Saturday, the treasurer reported that $350 had been received toward the $500 which will make up the purses. It was also reported that there were forty entries. A party of Pennsylvania professionals intend to come in a body. The tournament committee is working on the rules governing the tournament will be opened by Park Commissioner Schrader. A banquet will be given to the professionals by amateur golfers at the conclusion of the tournament, Friday night, July 14. At this banquet the prizes will be presented in gold to the successful players. The executive committee asks the cooperation of the golfers of New York to make the tournament one of the most successful events ever held in this section—If not the entire country.

CARS

The fame of Peugeot Cars rests on the fact that the makers were among the very first in the field, and have steadily maintained leadership in invention.

MADE IN FRANCE

Other makers are now experimenting where Peugeot has experimented and obtained his proofs. Other makers are now advertising as "new" features which are already old in Peugeot Cars.

1902—Peugeot adopted mechanically operated inlet valves. Other builders laughed.

1905—All high-grade cars now use these valves. Peugeot first as usual.

1903-Peugeot began fitting two complete sets of ignition, make and break and jump spark with magneto and batteries. Other makers said "How foolish."

vantage of this system, follow suit. Next year two ignitions will be the rule and not the exception.

1905-Two other makers, realizing the ad-

1903—Peugeot bought European patents on Truffault Suspension. Other makers said "Worthless."

1905-Three European builders are paying Peugeot a royalty for the use of this device. Next year? Wait and see.

1903—Peugeot began to use metal pan under engine and transmission.

1905—All "good" cars are so equipped.

Other makers in 1906 or 1907 will imitate and advertise, as new, features which are already to be found in Peugeot Cars.
